

Accurate Fiber Laser 3015F High-Performance Metal Fiber Laser Cutting System

The Accurate Fiber Laser 3015F is a high-performance metal cutting system designed for precision, speed, and industrial-scale productivity. Engineered for cutting materials such as stainless steel, carbon steel, aluminum, brass, and galvanized sheets, it delivers clean edges, accurate detailing, and efficient processing with minimal material waste. Combining intelligent automation, stable motion control, and energy-efficient fiber laser technology, the 3015F is ideal for fabrication, manufacturing, signage, and industrial processing applications.

Key Features

High-Speed Fiber Laser Cutting

Delivers fast, accurate cutting performance with smooth edge finishing and reduced processing time for industrial production environments.

Precision Motion Control System

Advanced servo motors and high-precision guide rails ensure stable movement, accurate positioning, and consistent cutting quality during high-speed operation.

Energy-Efficient Fiber Laser Technology

The fiber laser source reduces energy consumption while providing powerful cutting capability and improved operational efficiency.

Automatic Exchange Table System

Dual-platform worktable design minimizes loading and unloading downtime, increasing workflow efficiency and supporting continuous production cycles.

Intelligent Control Interface

Supports automated nesting, optimized material utilization, and simplified machine operation for efficient production management.

Heavy-Duty Machine Structure

Rigid industrial-grade frame construction minimizes vibration, enhances structural stability, and maintains long-term cutting precision.

Use Cases

- Metal Fabrication
- Industrial Signage
- Electrical Enclosures
- Architectural Metal Works
- Automotive Components
- Custom Metal Processing
